GRAND VIEW OF TORONTO HARBOR FROM THE AIR---Y.M.C.A. FROLICS

The cement walls in front of the Casino at Scarborough Beach, which have been torn away, owing to the high waters of Lake Ontario this spring. Hundreds of dollars' worth of damage has been done all along the lake shore and also at Centre Island.

Damage done to a Kew Beach home by the recent floods and high water. Sidewalks and gardens were destroyed, while in many cases the foundations of the houses were threatened.

Lest anyone mistake this group for Ruth St. Denis and her company, we will put their minds at ease by telling them it is the West End Y.M.C.A. interpretation of a spring dance.

Fun at the West End Y.M.C.A. circus. The cat and the hobby horses furnished endless amusement for the interested spectators on this night of revelry.

Kent School junior basketball team, who have won all their games this year and who are hopeful of winning the cup.

Seeing East Toronto from an airplane. This interesting photograph of Toronto's lake front was taken from the clouds east of Scarborough Beach Park. In the distance can be seen the Casino and the Tower, while a wonderful view of the bay is afforded.
